2012 World Healer Notice World Healers are advised to prepare to protect Earth and its creatures from the threat of being unable to breathe. Humans breathe and the planet breathes, and oxygen is the ingredient that is needed by both.

The planet is entering an oxygen crisis stage as the old 3-D world merges and gives way to the lighter /faster energies of the 4th dimension (4-D). During the last seven years, planet Earth has phased into a merger of energies that gives cause to humans beginning to experience difficulty in breathing.

There are dynamics of changes in the atmosphere today that will rapidly diminish the availability of oxygen. This condition is accelerating drastically, and in a year the World Population could be caught in a fear panic for want of oxygen.

Emerald Star to Earth's Rescue

While tending to a communication with Healers and Masters of the Inner World I received a message to note the Energies of a Star I had known of in the past. Busy at the moment, I acknowledged the message.

Later that evening I opened the communication to learn what else I needed to know of the Emerald Star. The Master I connect to told me of the need of the Energies of that particular solar system.

What follows is my experience and reaction to what I was given (by Joseph Costa).
