Cory Cochiolo, Executive Director of the Institute of Thought

Cory Cochiolo is an Altered States Therapist and Certified Hypnotherapist. During the past 6 years she has studied extensively at the Institute of Thought, where she learned the 15th Step process, hypnotherapy and regression therapy. She now teaches the 15th Step and hypnotherapy internationally, sees clients in her outpatient practice, and leads the Institute of Thought as its Executive Director.

Cory has partnered with Dr. Joseph Costa on groundbreaking medical work with doctors on the spiritual plane. She is also co-founder of the Millennium Woman Pyramid program. She serves on the board of the World Healer Institute, an international group of visionary planetary healers with a mission to cleanse mass destructive thinking from our world. In her spare time Cory energetically pursues her doctorate and maintains a loving relationship with her husband and two young daughters.
